China's Social Policy: New Agenda in the Era of Urbanization

Dr. Xinping Guan

Professor of Sociology, Head of the Department of Social Work & Social Policy Nankai University, People's Republic of China

Dr. Xinping will review China's social policy reform and development over the past two decades. While the country has responded to domestic economic reform and globalization since the 1980s, China's policy now is based on the accelerating socio-economic changes of urbanization since the late 1990s.

Dr. Xinping is also the vice chair of the China Association of Social Work Education, a member of the Expert Consulting Committee, China Ministry of Civil Affairs and was a Fulbright scholar at UC Berkeley. He is the author of Urban Poverty in China, Introduction to Social Policy, and many papers on social policy and sociology.
