

Curriculum Vitae

Jaehee Yi

Email address: jaeheeyi@usc.edu, jaehee.yi@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Present	Doctoral Candidate in Social Work, University of Southern California, USA
2005	Master of Social Work, University of Michigan, USA
1997	Graduate School of Interpretation and Translation, Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea
1994	Bachelor of Art in English Language and Literature, Ehwa Womans University, Korea

TEACHING EXPERIENCES

8/07 – 5/08	Part-time instructor, University of Southern California Ph.D required courses: Introductory Social Work Statistics & Multiple Regression for Social Work Research
10/07 & 02/08	Guest lecturer, University of Southern California MSW course: Program Planning and Evaluation in Health Care
1998– 2002	Trainer on language and culture for English-speaking expats, Korea
3 – 10/1994	English teacher at Kwangmoon Girls' Middle School, Korea

RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS

7/08 – Present	With Dr. Devon Brooks: Quantitative data analyst for “Partnerships for Families Initiatives”, University of Southern California
8/05 – 8/08	With Dr. Brad Zebrack: Involved in literature review and data analysis for his cancer survivorship projects, University of Southern California
6/06 – 05/07	With Dr. Brad Zebrack: Project Coordinator of Photovoice Project for Families of Childhood Cancer Survivors, University of Southern California
6/06 – 9/06	With Dr. Helen Land: Involved in qualitative data analysis of her spirituality study and researching for her spirituality book publication, University of Southern California
8/04 – 3/05	With Dr. Mark Chesler: Received training on cancer survivorship research and involved in qualitative data analysis, University of Michigan
8/04 – 2/05	With Dr. Stephanie Brown at Positive Emotion and Psychophysiology Lab, University of Michigan: Involved in researching about the impact of caregiving on physical health
8/04 – 9/05	With Dr. Barbara Fredrickson in Psychology, University of Michigan: Involved in the study on the interaction between caregiver and child
10/03 – 4/04	With Dr. Kelly Maxwell for the Program on Intergroup Relations in Psychology, University of Michigan: Involved in creating class reading lists for the intergroup dialogues on Asian men/women, international/domestic students, and Latinos/blacks

PRACTICUM AND VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

- 8/04 – 5/05 Turner Senior Resource Center of University of Michigan Hospital: Involved in writing grants and developing programs for older adults
- 8/04 – 12/05 New Visions, an organization for preventing domestic violence among Asian Americans in Michigan: Assisted in conducting needs assessments
- 1 – 6/06 Healthy Asian Americans Project of University of Michigan: Involved in researching on the attitudes of Asian American women toward breast and cervical cancer screening, organizing free health screening events, and analyzing evaluation data
- 1/01 – 4/03 Member of the initiative for law enforcement of child support payment with Minwoohwe (Women’s Rights NGO), Korea: Researched best practices in foreign countries for projects on establishment of the teacher’s guideline on single parents and their children, program development for single parents, establishment of school guidelines on sexual harassment, development of a manual on sexual offender treatment; and led the research team consisting of 3 lawyers, 1 family law scholar, and 2 researchers in researching foreign best practices on child support payment and government enforcements.
- 1998 – 2000 Baked and sold cakes with children with Down Syndrome

FELLOWSHIPS

- 6 – 8/04 Christine Mirzayan Science & Technology Policy Graduate Fellowship at National Cancer Policy Board, Institute of Medicine, Washington D.C.: Involved in interviews and writing a background paper on the roles of social workers in cancer survivorship, which was included in the book, “From Cancer Patient to Cancer Survivor: Lost in Transition”
- 4 – 6/03 International Labor Organization, United Nations, Jakarta, Indonesia: Involved in researching gender mainstreaming and gender equality in Indonesia’s workplace, and organizing workshops on child labor elimination
- 1 – 7/03 Fellow of the International Women Leaders Program at Ministry of Gender Equality, Korea: Won an award with a paper on gender issues in aging, took training on gender equality, and translating a UN-authored book, “Transforming Empowerment and Gender Mainstreaming.”

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- 5/07 Association of Oncology Social Work, Portland, Oregon, USA: “Spiritual well-being, social support, and quality of life for cancer survivors: Korean American and Korean women”
- 12/06 International Conference on Social Work in Health and Mental Health, Hong Kong: “Resiliency Model of Family Stress, Adjustment, and Adaptation for Cancer-Affected Asian Families”
- 7/06 International Federation of Social Workers World Conference, Munich, Germany: “Oncology social workers in the United States”

PUBLICATIONS

Published articles

- Lim, J. W., Yi, J. The Effects of Religiosity, Spirituality and Social Support on Quality of Life: A Comparison between Korean-American and Korean Breast and Gynecological Cancer Survivors. Oncology Nursing Forum (in press)
- Yi, J. (2008). Racial Diversity and Social Capital. [Review of the book]. Journal of Sociology and Social Welfare (in press).
- Yi, J. (2008). Fallacies of Development – Crises of Human and Social Development: The End of Hubris. [Review of the book]. Social Development Issues, 30(2), 119-120.
- Lim, J. W., Yi, J., Zebrack, B. J. (2008). Acculturation, social support, and quality of life for Korean Immigrant Breast and Gynaecological cancer survivors. Ethnicity and Health, 13(3), 243-260.
- Zebrack, B. J., Yi, J., Peterson, L., Ganz, P. A. (2008). The impact of cancer and quality of life for long-term survivors. Journal of Psycho-Oncology, 17(9), 891-900.
- Brown, S., Smith, D., Schulz, R., Kabeto, M., Ubel, P., Poulin, M., Yi, J., Kim, C., Langa, K. Caregiving Behavior is Associated with Decreased Mortality Risk. Psychological Science (in press).

Under review

- Yi, J., Chi, I. Roles of walking, alcohol consumption, and social support in health of older cancer survivors. Journal of Aging and Health.
- Yi, J. Family survivorship of childhood cancer: Family Systems Theories. The Family Journal.

In preparation

- Yi, J., Knight, B. Positive and negative interactions among Korean caregivers.
- Yi, J., Palinkas, L. The role of culture in social relationships among women cancer survivors: a qualitative metasynthesis
- Yi, J., Zebrack, B., Cabassa, L. Self-portraits of families with young adult cancer survivors: using photovoice methodology.

CERTIFICATIONS

- | | |
|------|---|
| 2000 | US CPA (Certified Public Accountant) certificate, Delaware, USA |
| 1994 | Teacher's certificate for high school English, Korea |

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Provided professional interpretation and translation services for 7 years as a self-employed English/Korean conference and project interpreter. Offered simultaneous and consecutive interpretations and written translations for projects, international conferences, seminars, and diverse business settings.

Updated on 11/11/08