OTHER IMPORTANT DETAILS

Do I need to list meal break(s) on my time sheet?
Per University policy (https://policy.usc.edu/meals/), all non-exempt, hourly employees are to receive a minimum 30 min. unpaid meal break if they work more than five (5) hours in a day. If you have any questions regarding meal breaks, please contact Laylani De La Vega at ldelaveg@usc.edu and Suredera Ikard at ikard@usc.edu.

What if I need to work more hours in a week than are listed on my contract?
If you need to work additional hours in any particular week than what is listed on your contract or hours in excess of eight (8) per day, you will need to get prior approval from Dr. Haluk Soydan, Associate Dean of Non-Tenure Faculty Affairs, Senior Fellow for Global Research Impact, Research Professor of Social Work. Please be sure to e-mail him your request at soydan@usc.edu and be sure to cc: Nataly Manzo at nmanzo@usc.edu, Laylani De La Vega at ldelaveg@usc.edu and Suredera Ikard at ikard@usc.edu so that they are aware of the additional hours. Failure to get prior approval may result in a rejected time sheet and can delay your payment until the matter is sorted out.

Can I enter all my hours on one day?
It really depends on how many hours you are authorized to claim in a week. The traditional number of hours is ten (10) per week and if you are attempting to claim ten (10) hours in a single day, you will need prior approval from Dr. Haluk Soydan, Associate Dean of Non-Tenure Faculty Affairs, Senior Fellow for Global Research Impact, Research Professor of Social Work. Normally, hours are noted on class days and on days you do preparation and/or grading for your course. Also, please note that if you work over five (5) hours in a single day, you must take a minimum 30-minute unpaid meal break, as per California State Labor Laws.

What if I missed the Workday Time Tracking deadline?
Workday Time Tracking only deals with the current pay period, so if you miss the deadline, there is no way to go back on Workday Time Tracking. If you missed the deadline for submitting your hours on Workday Time Tracking, please contact Laylani De La Vega at ldelaveg@usc.edu and Suredera Ikard at ikard@usc.edu. They will do their best to ensure that you receive your payment in a timely manner. However, please note that this may cause a delay in your payment and may cause an interruption on any direct deposit transactions.

When do I get paid if I use Workday Time Tracking?
Pay dates for time sheets submitted on Workday Time Tracking are every two weeks and the bi-weekly payroll schedule can be found at the USC Payroll Services Website (https://usc.edu/payroll) under Schedules.
